Guidance Notes

1. The applicant is the person on whose behalf the work is being carried out e.g. the building's owner.
2. Two copies of this notice should be completed and submitted with plans, site location plan and particulars in duplicate in accordance with the provision of Building Regulation 14. Subject to certain exceptions where Part B (Fire Safety) imposes a requirement in relation to proposed building work, two further copies of plans which demonstrate with the requirements should be deposited.

Fees: Subject to certain exceptions a Full Plans submission attracts fees payable by the person by whom or on whose behalf the work is to be carried out. Fees are payable in two stages. The first fee must accompany the deposit of plans and the second fee is payable after the first site inspection of work in progress. This second fee is a single payment in respect of each individual building, to cover all site visits and consultation which may be necessary until the work is satisfactorily completed. Table 1 prescribes the plan and inspection fees payable for small domestic buildings. Table 2 prescribes fees payable for small alterations and extensions to a dwelling home, and the addition of a small garage or carport. Table 3 prescribes the fees payable for all other cases the appropriate fee is dependant upon the type of work proposed. Fee scales and methods of calculation are set out in guidance notes on fees which are available on request.
4. Public sewer connections: Subject to certain provisions of the Public Health Act 1936 owners and occupiers of premises are entitled to have their private foul and surface water drains and sewers connected to the public sewers, where available. Special arrangements apply to trade effluent discharge. Persons wishing to make such connections must give not less than 21 days notice to the appropriate authority (Thames Water/Southern Water).
5. Certifiable premises: The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 applies to all premises that are 'workplaces'. It also applies to the common (shared) areas of residential buildings such as flats, hostels, and care homes.

'Workplace' includes any premises or parts of premises, not being domestic premises, used for the purpose of an employer's understanding and which are made available to an employee as a place of work.
6. The number of storeys in the building as determined in accordance with Regulation 6 of the Higher-Risk Buildings \(Descriptions and Supplementary Provisions\) Regulations 2023
7. Section 8 of the Building Regulations etc. (Amendment) (England) Regulations 2023 the local authority can grant an application with requirements. The requirements may specify modifications that must be made in the full plans or that further plans shall be required.
8. A fee is usually payable to contribute towards the cost of site inspections, being a single payment which covers all necessary site visits until satisfactory completion of the work in accordance with the Building Regulations.

Fees: The Building Notice fee is calculated in accordance with current fees regulations and is payable at the time of submission. Guidance notes on fees are available on request.

Table 1 prescribes the plan and inspection fees payable for small domestic buildings. Table 2 prescribes the fees payable for small alterations and extensions to a dwelling house, and the addition of a small garage or carport. Table 3 prescribes the fees payable for all other cases.
9. Subject to certain provisions of the Public Health Act 1936 owners and occupiers of premises are entitled to have their private foul and surface water drains and sewers connected to the public sewers, where available. Special arrangements apply to trade effluent discharge. Persons wishing to make such connections must give not less than 21 days notice to the appropriate authority.
